Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 19 September 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-7, drawn to Control or access channel scanning, classified in class 455, subclass 434.
 - II. Claims 8-11, drawn to Radiotelephone equipment detail, classified in class 455, subclass 550.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification.
3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02).
4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter.
5. During a telephone conversation with Robert D. Leonard on 3/14/2007 a provisional election was made to prosecute the invention of group II, claims 8-11. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-7 withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Renko et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,148,203).

Regarding claim 8, Renko et al. teaches a wireless transmit/receive unit (WTRU) comprising: a memory configured for storing initial (e.g., world wide bandmap 108 – see the abstract and column 2, lines 5-13) and stored (e.g., frequencies listed in a learned bandmap 104 – see the abstract and column 2, lines 33-34) frequencies; and a processor configured to perform initial cell search (e.g., upon failing to detect a suitable carrier at any of the frequencies listed in the present regional bandmap, the device scans segments of a world wide bandmap 108 – see the abstract and column 2, lines 5-13) wherein chip-offset locations leading to unsuitable cells are masked so that said chip-offset locations are not detected when running subsequent initial cell searches at the same frequency (see the abstract and column 2, lines 5-13).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 9-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Regarding claim 9, the cited prior art, either alone or in combination, fail to teach perform a non-exhaustive initial cell search on initial frequencies where no cell is found searching the stored frequencies; and perform an exhaustive initial cell search on initial frequencies where no cell is found searching the initial frequencies wherein a hit to an unsuitable cell was detected when said initial frequencies were searched non-exhaustively.

Claims 10-11 are objected to with the same reason as that in claim 9.

Contact Information

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Huy D. Nguyen whose telephone number is 571-272-7845. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F.
